

The ultimate courage test

Question 1: Your neighbour's house is on fire, what do you do?

- A: you go in to save the people that are in it.
- B: you call the fire brigade.
- C: you run away.

Question 2: You're going to the beach with a friend. On the way, there are a few rocks, what do you do?

- A: you jump off the highest rocks.
- B: you jump off a lower rock where you're sure it's not dangerous.
- C: you don't even think of jumping.

Question 3: You and your family go to the mountain for a week in the Alps, what do you do?

- A: you go "off-track" skiing.
- B: you go skiing on the normal slopes.
- C: you sunbathe.

Question 4: You haven't studied for an exam, do you?

- A: set the fire alarm off so the school is evacuated.
- B: fake illness so you don't go to school and revise.
- C: get a bad mark.

Question 5: Somebody wants to fight you, what do you do?

- A: you beat him up.
- B: you try to reason with him.
- C: you hide.

Question 6: At school there are lots of sports you can choose, which one do you pick?

- A: boxing.
- B: tennis.
- C: marbles.

Question 7: You're called up to fight in a war, what do you do?

- A: you run in to battle.
- B: you wait for orders.
- C: you escape to a neutral country.

Question 8: Your class goes tree-top climbing, which level do you choose?

- A: the highest level there is.
- B: what you think is your level.
- C: you say that you have vertigo to the teacher but actually you're just scared.

You have mainly As: you are very courageous but be careful you might not always succeed.

You have mainly Bs: You are very sensible - continue this way.

You have mainly Cs: You're a scaredy-cat